DEN SOM HEVER STEMMEN

A photograph of two firefighters from behind, standing on a city street. They are wearing full protective gear, including helmets and jackets with reflective stripes. The firefighter on the left has 'FEUERWEHR' and 'Einsatzleiter' on his back, while the one on the right has 'BERLIN' and 'FEUERWEHR'. In the background, a crowd of people is walking, and a building is visible. The text 'GÅR I ILDEN FOR ANDRE' is overlaid in the bottom left corner.

HAR JEG EN JOBB I MORGEN?

An aerial photograph of several large, white icebergs floating in dark teal water. The icebergs have jagged, irregular edges and show signs of melting with some blue-tinged water visible beneath the surface. The lighting creates soft shadows on the ice, highlighting its texture.

NEDSIDEN ER ENKLEST Å MÅLE

A wide-angle photograph of rolling green hills under a clear blue sky. The hills are covered in vibrant green grass, and numerous thin, dark lines, likely from a tractor, curve across the slopes. In the distance, on the right side, three small trees stand on a ridge. The text "ARE WE THERE YET?" is superimposed in the center of the image in a large, white, sans-serif font.

ARE WE THERE YET?
